To Whom It May Concern:

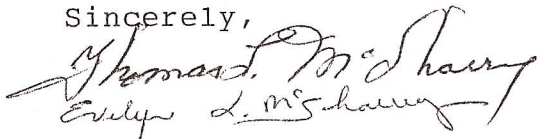

Dave Cannon of Cannon Construction recently built our ranch home at 8626 North 83rd Avenue. My wife and I were very pleased with Cannon Construction from start to finish. We had heard of horror stories with building a home. With Cannon Construction we experienced none what so ever.

Cannon Construction includes many extras in building his homes. His uncanny attention to space and design is refreshing. His high quality workmanship and materials make for a dream home.

Any small flaw that was noticed, we called Dave and he responded not with an excuse, but a promise. His word was true to form every time. To every concern, no matter the size, he gave his full and quick construction attention. Needless to say, we had very few concerns with Cannon Construction.

If we were to build another home, you can bet Cannon Construction will build it. We are proud of our new home and the builder. Dave Cannon is a standard of excellence.

Sincerely,
